

Miles G. Chase
Louisiana
1-(985)-869-4383
milesgchase@gmail.com

SUMMARY

My work history and skills show a history of management and data analysis skills that would make me an asset to any team. My skills in both the financial sector as well as the Supply Chain sector helps me to be balanced, reasonable, and aggressive with any task or role given.

RELEVANT COURSEWORK AND SKILLS

Managerial Economics
Production and Operations Management
Applied Economic Analysis
Supply Chain Management and Purchasing
Logistics Management and Transportation

Analysis Driven Decision-Making
Managing Slack times and Efficiencies
Analysis of Securities and Insurance Industry
Purchasing Ethics and Commodity Tracking
Logistics and Inventory Transport

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

DHL Supply Chain

Operations Intern

May 2025- Current

Lacombe, Louisiana

- Restructured a repack facility layout to save $300,000 in annual labor costs using associate research and time studies.
- Managed a floor of around 20 associates in a distribution center.
- Use production forecasts and real time data to allocate labor between inbound and outbound associates.
- Effectively utilized the WMS system “Blue Yonder” for inventory insights and inbound and outbound process management.

Home Bank

Portfolio Manager Intern – Universal Banker

May 2024- May 2025

New Orleans, Louisiana

- Analyze banking trends and competition to offer insights into a SWOT analysis.
- Managed financial products for customers and converted customers to new products based on needs.
- Tracked the Federal funds rate and the current number of deposits to make pushes for non-interest-bearing accounts.

EDUCATION

Southeastern Louisiana University

BBA Economics Concentration

GPA: 3.94

Graduation: May 2026

Presidents List: 2022-2025

Securities Industry Essentials 2025: a FINRA credential that validates foundational knowledge of financial markets, regulatory frameworks, and risk management principles.